 The aim of KWASA International Development and Consulting Centre is to break down communication barriers between parents and children to reduce the spread of HIV/AIDS among young people. We hope to avoid the practice of immature sex thus preventing teenage pregnancy and to reduce drug and child abuse. We provide counselling, cultural activities such as drama and poetry to highlight these issues, we raise awareness on radio shows and have a drop in centre for counsellors. If you have any questions please call our office.

 Swaziland Action Group Against Abuse (SWAGAA) is a local non-governmental organisation which has been working for over twenty years to eradicate Gender Based Violence and Human Trafficking in Swaziland. We seek to empower survivors of abuse through a range of counselling services which is offered at six different sites around the country along with our TOLL FREE telephone line. Prevention wise, we run Girls Empowerment Clubs, a Male Involvement Program and a weekly radio show concerning all things to do with Gender Based Violence, exploring GBV issues broadcast every Wednesday at 10am. Once you report a case of abuse SWAGAA will first address basic needs by providing emergency medical assistance, food, transport and a safe shelter. Once immediate needs are met the psycho-social support may begin. SWAGAA will provide couples counselling, one on one counselling & child counselling. swagaacounselling@yahoo.com

The Family Life Association of Swaziland or FLAS remains the leading organisation in the field of reproductive health through the delivery of innovative youth focused services. Adolescents have been deprived of sexual and reproductive health services and information, when they are the hardest hit by the challenges of HIV/AIDS, unplanned pregnancies and gender based violence.
